

Connect with mental health support using our Sydney Health app or anthem.com

If you're feeling anxious or depressed, or having trouble coping with problems at home or at work, you can connect to a licensed therapist or board-certified psychologist or psychiatrist through a virtual care video visit.¹ Appointments can be scheduled within one to two weeks.² Psychiatrists are available to help you manage your medications. They do not provide counseling or talk therapy.³

When it's time for your appointment, use your smartphone, tablet, or computer with a camera to meet securely through our SydneySM Health app or anthem.com.

¹ Online counseling is not appropriate for all kinds of problems. If you are in crisis or having suicidal thoughts, it's important that you seek help immediately. Please call 800-273-8255 (National Suicide Prevention Lifeline) or 911 for help. If your issue is an emergency, call 911 or go to your nearest emergency room. Emergency services are not provided through virtual care on the Sydney Health app or anthem.com.

² Appointments subject to availability.

³ Prescriptions determined to be a "controlled substance" (as defined by the Controlled Substances Act under federal law) cannot be prescribed through virtual care on the Sydney Health app or anthem.com.

In addition to using a telehealth service, you can receive in-person or virtual care from your own doctor or another healthcare provider in your plan's network. If you receive care from a doctor or healthcare provider not in your plan's network, your share of the costs may be higher. You may also receive a bill for any charges not covered by your health plan.

LiveHealth Online is the trade name of Health Management Corporation, a separate company, providing telehealth services on behalf of Anthem Blue Cross and Blue Shield.
