THOMPSON THRIFT

At the Kelley School of Business, our mission is to provide unmatched value to our partner associations. We're dedicated to delivering top-tier education that equips you with the skills essential for navigating the dynamic business landscape.

The Kelley School of Business offers master's degrees in multiple areas of business taught by our top-ranked Kelley Faculty. Our flexible schedule also allows you to complete your assignments at the time that works best for you.

As an association partner, you can enter any of our degrees during any quarter, you don't have to wait for fall and spring like the public students, allowing you to start your degree at the most convenient time for you.

New "Stackable" Credentials

Many of our professional and online graduate certificates stack up into a master's degree. If you apply for a graduate certificate and master's degree at the same time, you will receive both credentials after passing the designated courses. As a Kelley Partner, you can also choose to "stack" your certificate and MS credits into an MBA.
